Restoring & Celebrating Family Wellness Workshop
February 25, 2020
5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Shiprock Chapter

“Winter Stories Concerning Children With Extra Healthcare Needs”

Light Dinner, Free Workshop & Door Prize Drawing

Come join us for an evening workshop on Winter Stories Concerning Children with Extra Healthcare Needs with presenters Ray Deal, Traditional Teacher and advocates Kyle Jim and Megan Johnson. Ray Deal is Táchii’ni, born for M̀ii deeshgiizhinii. Ray is from Tohaali, NM. He served as a Peacemaker/Pacemaker Liaison for the Navajo Nation Peacemaking Program for almost 20 years. He enjoys sharing cultural music and songs with Hozhoogo’ naasha Dooleel concept.

Kyle Jim is Táchii’ni, ‘Áshjí, Tó dich’ii, Bit’ahní. He grew up in the Four Corners community as a farmer and activist. His role is to restore K’é back into the communities by assisting families with extra healthcare needs through the Navajo Family Voices Program and Diné Introspective.

Megan Johnson is Táchii’ni, born for Hoogán tání. Her paternal grandparents are Tséñjikíiní. She was born in Shiprock and raised in New Mexico. She is taking classes at San Juan College and works as a family advocate for the Navajo Family Voices Program.

Contact: Judy Wolfe 505-368-6304, or Randy John 505-368-7463

Restoring & Celebrating Family Wellness Committee: Shiprock Chapter, Community Volunteers, Health Promotion/Disease Prevention, Navajo Nation Division of Behavioral & Mental Health Services, Office of Environmental Health/Dine Bahozho Coalition, NNMC Sexual Assault Care Coordination, NNMC ICU/Nursing Division, Office of Diné Youth-Shiprock Agency, San Juan Collaboratives for Health Equity, Indian Country Grassroots Support/Navajo Family Voices, Teen Life, Healthy Hunger Free Kids Act Demonstration Project, Healthy Native Communities Partnership, NNMC Women’s Health, Together Growing Our Dreams (T-GOD), Navajo Treatment Center for Children & Families, Navajo Department for Self Reliance, Capacity Builders, Strengthening Families Program/Navajo Nation Division of Social Services.

We are committed to strengthening families and nurturing positive changes in our communities.